Ricardo Martinez-Cid of Podhurst Orseck Receives Florida Bar Certification in Aviation Law

Miami – June XX, 2010 – Miami law firm Podhurst Orseck announces that partner Ricardo M. Martinez-Cid has received his Florida Bar Board Certification in Aviation Law, thereby accrediting him as an expert within the field of practice. According to the Bar, certification is the highest level of evaluation by The Florida Bar of competency and experience within an area of law, and professionalism and ethics in practice.

Much of Martinez-Cid's practice involves personal injury, wrongful death, and product liability cases with a focus on aviation litigation. He has represented victims of numerous commercial aviation disasters, as well as general aviation cases including fixed wing and rotary aircraft.

Martinez-Cid is on the Board of Directors of the Cuban-American Bar Association. Currently, he serves as Co-Chair of the Aviation and Space Law Committee of the American Bar Association and as Vice Chair of the American Association for Justice's Aviation Law Section. He is a frequent author and lecturer on issues pertaining to aviation law and litigation.

Martinez-Cid received a bachelor's degree from the University of Miami and a J.D. from Yale Law School.

Miami-based Podhurst Orseck, P.A., established over four decades ago, is a top flight boutique trial and appellate firm focusing its practice on tort litigation matters including aviation, products liability, serious personal injury, and wrongful death claims, as well as complex commercial litigation and white collar defense. Additionally, the firm has a strong appellate practice, handling appeals for its own attorneys and attorneys throughout the nation, in various state and federal appellate courts, including the United States Supreme Court. The firm has consistently received an AV-Rating from Martindale-Hubbell Law Directory, the highest possible rating, based on legal ability and general ethical standards.
